An old Quaker went into a book store, and an impertinent salesman, wishing to have some sport at his expense, said to him, "You are from the country, aren't you?" "Yes," quickly answered the Quaker. "Then here's just the thing for you," responded the clerk holding up a book. "What is it?" asked the Quaker, "It's an essay on the rearing of calves. "Friend," said the Quaker, "thee had better present that to thy mother!"
